

Please join us for the second installment of State Treasurer Tim Cahill's 2008 Brown Bag Lunch Series

Making Sense of a Senseless Market: Steps that you can take today

By: Christopher H. Angers, CRPC
Manager/Advanced Financial Advisor

Date: Thursday, July 24, 2008

Time: 12—1 PM

Location: The State House - Boston
Room 437 on the 4th Floor

Learn financial investment strategies for a volatile market!

- How do you navigate the waters of an ever changing market?
- When is a good time to buy? . . . Sell?
- Who is responsible for this anyway?
- You know that you should diversify, but what does this really mean?

This seminar will demonstrate how to make smart investments!
We'll explore why the markets are volatile, address the emotions that market change can bring, and offer five steps you can take to gain more control in an uncertain environment!

Space is limited so registration is required.
To RSVP, please register at:
Http://www.mass.gov/treasury/financialled.htm